

K-LOVE is an essential part of the community because it gives me an option to listen to positive, uplifting music as opposed to music glorifying sex, drugs, and crime that I hear on every other radio station. The community needs a radio station that supports the faith of the majority, that being Christianity. If K-LOVE were off the air, my family would have no alternative radio station.